

Upcoming Honors Program Events

Thursday, September 6th

Alumni Lecture--Poetry reading by Monica Peck, Honors Program graduate, writer and teacher

7:30 PM, Hall Center for the Humanities Conference Hall

Friday, September 7th

A conversation about writing with Monica Peck—all interested students and faculty are invited to attend

3:30 PM, Nunemaker

Monday, September 10th

Information meeting about Undergraduate Research, Undergraduate Research Awards and REP (Research Experience Program)

4:00PM, Nunemaker

Tuesday, September 11th

Teach for America Information Session

7 PM, Nunemaker Center

Saturday, September 15th

Honors Program Open House, Family Weekend

10 AM-noon, Nunemaker

Monday, September 17th

“Effects and Strategies of Art Projects in Public Forests and Private Gardens: A Curatorial Approach”, a lecture by Ute Ritschel, artist, anthropologist, and curator of Forest Art Wisconsin

7 PM, Nunemaker

Tuesday, September 18th

Information meeting about Undergraduate Research, Undergraduate Research Awards and REP (Research Experience Program)

4:00PM, Nunemaker

Wednesday, September 26th

Graduate Program in Architecture Open House for Honors Students

4:00-5:30 PM, Room 216 Marvin Hall

Thursday, October 4th

“Taking the Crooked Path or Thinking Twice about Graduate School” panel, organized by Mary Klayder and Tony Rosenthal

7 PM, Nunemaker

Monday, October 15th

Study Abroad Fair

6-8 PM, Nunemaker Center

Mid-October (Date to be announced)

Alumni Lecture -- Christine Knudsen, Office for Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (United Nations), Spokesperson for Save the Children